Fifth Sunday of Easter † John 13:31-33a, 34-35

In this Gospel we hear how Jesus wants us to love. Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

How did Jesus show his love for us? Why is it hard, sometimes, for us to love others? When is it the hardest for you to follow this commandment? When we don't follow this commandment what happens?

Pentecost and the Birthday of Mother Church will be celebrated on Sunday, May 23. On that day, we are asking three things of you:

1. As we pray the Prayers of the Faithful in native tongues, we ask that you who are interested and willing to do one of the small prayers in your native language, contact the parish office and let them know what mass you attend and what language is native to you. Someone will contact you with all necessary information.

2. Wear red on Sunday - symbolizing the tongues of fire and the Holy Spirit coming upon us.

3. Join us in the PSC after the 9:00 am and 11:30 am masses for a Birthday Party - cake and fun.
